ArcelorMittal Nippon Steel challenges Gujarat govt and Essar Group over Hazira port licence

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Ahmedabad, July 26

ARCELORMITTAL NIPPON STEEL India (AMNSIL) has filed a petition in the Gujarat High Court against the Government of Gujarat and Essar Bulk Terminal seeking transfer of Hazira port licence in its name.

Within days of acquiring Essar Steel under an insolvency process, AMNSIL had made an application to the Gujarat Maritime Board requesting that the licence be transferred to them.

While the government is yet to decide on the matter, the firm has approached the court stating that the Essar Bulk Terminal (EBTL) holds captive licence as a nominee or trustee, according to the petition filed under Article 226. Arcelor Mittal did not respond to email and phone calls made for comments.

Essar Steel owns a 10 MTPA steel plant at Hazira in Gujarat, which is serviced by a captive jetty constructed at port. "The petitioner is seeking the reversion of the captive jetty licences," AMNSIL said in its petition, claiming it was a captive user of the jetty and intended beneficiary under all the licences and expansions. "EBTLis not an independent licensee... but merely a 'nominee' and 'trustee', holding the two licences on behalf of and in trust for petitioner's exclusive use and benefit," it said, adding Essar Steel has ceased to be same group firms and therefore EBTL no longer stands eligible and does not possess any right as a licence holder of the captive jetty.
