

GUJARAT AMBUJA EXPORTS LIMITED
POLICY FOR PRESERVATION OF DOCUMENTS

1. Introduction:

The purpose of this Policy for Preservation of Documents (hereinafter referred to as “The Policy”) is to ensure that Gujarat Ambuja Exports Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) retains its official records in complete and accurate manner and in accordance with the requirements of all applicable laws and to ensure that official records no longer needed by the Company are discarded at the proper time. This Policy provides guidelines concerning the length of time official records should be retained under ordinary business circumstances. No director, officer or employee of the Company shall knowingly destroy a document with the intent to obstruct or influence the investigation or proper administration of any matter within the jurisdiction of any government department or agency or in relation to or contemplation of any such matter or case. This policy covers all records and documents of the Company.

2. Policy:

This Policy represents the Company’s formal policy regarding the preservation of documents and official records related to and generated in the course of the Company’s operations.

3. Records Covered:

This Policy applies to all official records generated in the course of the Company’s operations, including but not limited to:

- typed or printed hardcopy (i.e. paper) documents;
- electronic records and documents (e.g., email, web files, text files, PDF files etc.);
- video or digital images;
- graphic representations;
- electronically stored information contained on network servers and/or document management systems;
- recorded audio material (e.g., voicemail);
- other kind of records.

4. Administration:

4.1. Record Preservation Schedule: Attached to this Policy is a Record Preservation Schedule (Annexure A) that is approved as the maintenance and preservation schedule for official records of the Company. It shall be the duty of the Head of each Department to administer this Policy and implement reasonable processes and procedures concerning the Record Preservation Schedule.

4.2. Distribution of Policy to Employees and Officers:

The Head of the Department will arrange for every officer and employee who may have control over or responsibility for the Company's documents to receive a copy of this Policy and ensure that he or she has received a copy of this Policy, has read and understood it and has agreed to comply with it.

5. Record Storage Procedures:

5.1. Organization of Records: In order to facilitate administration of this Policy, where practicable, the Company's official records should generally be organized and stored according to general categories in a manner that best facilitates the efficient administration of the Company's operations where appropriate. Records within each category should generally be organized and stored in chronological order or by time period (e.g., by month or year).

5.2. Dating of Records: Categories of records not required to be retained on a permanent basis (according to the Record Preservation Schedule) should be maintained by date or conspicuously dated to enable such records to be easily identified for destruction at the end of the record preservation period specified in the Record Preservation Schedule.

5.3. Confidentiality of Records: Records containing confidential information should be labeled and/or stored in a manner to limit access to those employees or other individuals with authorization to view such records. The Company provides its employees with email as a tool for performing its employees' work functions. While the Company understands that employees may use their email to conduct personal business, employees should be aware that they have no expectation of privacy for any information or communications contained in work-related email accounts. The Company reserves the right to review any of the Company's email at any time.

5.4. Electronic Storage System: The IT Department of the Company is authorized to develop and implement a system for maintaining the Company's records via an electronic storage system that either images hardcopy records or transfers computerized records to electronic storage media (e.g., hard drives, storage area networks or optical media such as CDs and DVDs).

6. Confidentiality and ownership:

All records are the property of the Company and employees are expected to hold all business records in confidence and to treat them as the Company's assets. Records must be safeguarded and may be disclosed to parties outside of the Company only upon proper authorization. Any subpoena, court order or other request for documents received by employees or questions regarding the release of the Company's records must be directed to the Head of the respective Department, prior to the release of such records. Any records of the Company in possession of an employee must be returned to the employee's successor or person in charge or the Head of the Department, upon termination of employment.

7. Amendments to the Policy:

The Board of Directors shall alter, amend or modify the clauses of this Policy from time to time in line with the requirement of the SEBI Guidelines or any other rules, regulations etc., which may be amended and applicable from time to time.

ANNEXURE A
