

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

POLICY OF

GUJRAT AMBUJA EXPORTS LIMITED

1. Introduction:

Gujarat Ambuja Exports Limited (the "Company") recognizes that Related Party Transactions can present potential or actual conflicts of interest and may raise questions about whether such transactions are fair and on arm's length basis. The Company has been in compliance with various laws and regulations in this regards so far and ensured that such transactions are in the best interest of the Company and stakeholders.

The Companies Act, 2013 (hereinafter known as "Act") and the Regulation 23 of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("Listing Regulations") have laid down extensive requirements to be fulfilled in case of Related Party Transactions. Additionally, the Listing Regulations specifies that the Company is required to formulate a Policy on materiality of related party transactions and also on dealing with Related Party Transactions. Accordingly this Policy regulates all transactions between the Company and the Related Parties.

Consequent to changes made in the provisions of the Act and the then Listing Agreement, which was replaced by the Listing Regulations, the revised Policy was approved and adopted by the Board on 26th July, 2014.

Further considering various changes in the provisions of the Act read with changes as made applicable through the Companies (Amendment) Act, 2017 and the Listing Regulations, this revised Policy has been approved and adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company on 30th March, 2019.

Further considering various changes in the provisions of the Act read with changes as made applicable through the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Second Amendment Rules, 2019 and Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) (Third Amendment) Regulations, 2019, this revised Policy has been approved and adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company on 30th January, 2020.

Further Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) (Sixth Amendment) Regulations, 2021 were notified vide notification dated 9th November, 2021. For effecting the changes as notified in the said notification, the revised Policy was approved and adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company on 25th March, 2022.

3. Material Related Party:

A transaction with a related party shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds rupees one thousand crore or ten per cent of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited financial statements of the Company, whichever is lower.”

A “transaction(s)” involving payments made to a related party with respect to ‘brand usage’ or ‘royalty’ shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds 5 (five)% (percent) of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited financial statements of the Company.

4. Review and approval of Related Party Transactions:

Approval of related party transactions

A. Audit Committee:

i) All the transactions which are identified as related party transactions shall be pre-approved by the Audit Committee before entering into such transaction. The Audit Committee shall consider all relevant factors while deliberating the related party transactions for its approval.

ii) All the related party transactions and subsequent material modifications (as defined by Audit Committee) shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee.

iii) Only those members of the Committee, who are Independent Directors, shall approve the related party transactions.

iv) Further the related party transactions to which subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party, shall require prior approval of the audit committee of the Committee if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceeds ten per cent of the annual consolidated turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the Company.

v) With effect from 1st April, 2023, a related party transaction to which the subsidiary of the Company is a party but the Company is not a party, shall require prior approval of the audit committee of the Company if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds ten per cent of the annual standalone turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the subsidiary;

vi) Any member of the Audit Committee who has a potential interest in any related party transaction will rescue himself/herself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the related party transaction. A related party transaction which is

(i) not in the ordinary course of business, or (ii) not at arm's length price, would require approval of the Board of Directors or of shareholders, as the case may be.

vii) The Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for related party transactions which are repetitive in nature and subject to such criteria/conditions as mentioned under the provisions of Section 177 of the Act and Rules made thereunder and Regulation 23 of the Listing Regulations, as amended from time to time, and such other conditions as it may consider necessary in line with this Policy and in the interest of the Company. Such omnibus approval shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approval after the expiry of one financial year.

viii) Audit Committee shall review, on a quarterly basis, the details of related party transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to the omnibus approval. In connection with any review of a related party transaction, the Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this policy. Further the Audit Committee shall review the status of long-term (more than one year) or recurring related party transactions on an annual basis.

ix) A related party transaction entered into by the Company, which is not under the omnibus approval or otherwise pre-approved by the Audit Committee, will be placed before the Audit Committee for ratification.

B. Board of Directors:

In case any related party transactions are referred by the Company to the Board for its approval due to the transaction being (i) not in the ordinary course of business, or (ii) not at an arm's length price, the Board will consider such factors as, nature of the transaction, material terms, the manner of determining the pricing and the business rationale for entering into such transaction. On such consideration, the Board may approve the transaction or may require such modifications to transaction terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances. Any member of the Board who has any interest in any related party transaction will rescue himself/herself and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the related party transaction.

C. Shareholders:

If a related party transaction is (i) a material transaction, or (ii) not in the ordinary course of business, or not at arm's length price and exceeds thresholds prescribed under the Act and the Rules made thereunder (as amended from time to time), it shall require shareholders' approval by a resolution and no related party shall vote to approve such resolutions whether the Company is a related party to the particular transaction or not.

The requirements of approval specified under this Policy shall not apply in respect of a resolution plan approved under Section 31 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 including any statutory modification(s) or re-enactment thereof, subject to the event being disclosed to the recognized stock exchanges within 1 (one) day of the resolution plan being approved.

Further if 90 (ninety)% (percent) or more members of the Company, in number, are relatives of promoters or are related parties then that such members who are related party(ies) is/are eligible to entitle to vote on such resolutions whether the Company is a related party to the particular transaction or not.

5. Criteria for approving Related Party Transactions:
